DISCLAIMER

In December 2019, PayPal, Inc. acquired a controlling interest of Guofubao Information Technology Co., Ltd. (GoPay), a People's Republic of China ("PRC") payment platform, and PayPal is now the first foreign payments platform licensed to provide online payment services in the PRC.

A gradual migration of PRC account information, to the GoPay platform, began in July 2020. Requests for current PRC account data that reside on the GoPay platform must be requested from GoPay directly. Under the laws of PRC, GoPay may not provide cross-border information to non-PRC authorities unless they go through the Mutual Legal Assistance Treaty (MLAT) process. PayPal encourages requestors to consult with their legal counsel regarding PRC's International Criminal Judicial Assistance Law (ICJAL) and MLAT processes.

If the data you have requested includes PayPal legacy account information prior to the migration of the data to GoPay, PayPal, Inc. no longer has access to all of the account information native to GoPay. The information PayPal can provide on PRC accounts is limited to the following: Legal business name, business email address, business phone number, legal trading name, and merchant industry. Please note that any subsequent change to business information will not be reflected and so some information may be out-of-date.
